

WHAT COULD HAVE BEEN

Written by: Bert Elliott, Krysta Youngs and Anthony Evans

This comes once in a lifetime
Some come close but they never find
What I found in you
You're like unsolved mystery
And I'm always uncovering
Discovering something new.

I wanna tell you your beautiful
I have say, there's something you should know

CHORUS:

*I don't wanna live with regret
So I'm standing with my heart in my hands
Gotta let go of fear and take a chance
This love could last until the end
And I don't wanna be thinking
What could have been*

My soul saw it, now I know
Forever means letting go
I'm giving in to you
I'll do what it takes
I'll risk all the pain
The heartbreak to tell the truth

I wanna show you're beautiful
I have to say it, I want you to know

(CHORUS)

Like crashing waves
I can't hold back this feeling
I'm swept away
Every time you're near me
I can't let go
My Heart is yours
I've tried it, can't fight it
You have to know

(CHORUS)
